General Goat Exhibitor Rules and Guidelines

1. Exhibitor Rules and Guidelines: All goat exhibitors are required to abide by the Junior Fair General and Animal Exhibitor Rules as well as the rules listed below. Please read all rules and guidelines.
THERE IS A $5.00 PER HEAD ENTRY FEE PAYABLE TO FR. CO. JR. FAIRBOARD AND DUE AT REGISTRATION.
2. Health Requirements: No health papers. Animals exhibited must show no symptoms or evidence of an infectious or contagious disease. The Fair Veterinarian will inspect animals on the first day of the fair.
3. Scrapies Identification: All Goats must be identified with an official USDA Scrapie ear tag or tattoo to be shown at the Franklin County Junior Fair. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to make sure the animals are properly tagged or tattooed with an official USDA tag or tattoo before bringing their goat to the fair. Any goat without an official USDA Scrapie ear tag or tattoo will be sent home by fair officials and not permitted to show or sell.
4. Number of Entries: Exhibitors may only show 2 goats per class.
5. Evaluation: Goat exhibitors must bring up-to-date project book (s), record book (s), and feed tag (s) for all projects to evaluation. All goat exhibitors must go through goat evaluations to be eligible to show market, breeding, and/or specialty goats.
6. Authorized Show Ring People: No parents or other adults will be allowed in the show ring at any time. Only the exhibitors, the judge, Fair Board Members, and designated ring-persons will be allowed in the ring
7. Pen Cleaning: Before leaving the fair, all exhibitors are required to clean their stalls/pens/cages and return them to its original state on the last day of the fair. This includes those stalls and cages in Champion Row. All stalls/pens/cages will be inspected by the Directors in Charge.
8. Drug Use Notification Forms: Drug Use Notification Forms are required for all Market Steers, Market Hogs, Market Lambs, Market Goats, Poultry (pen) and Lactating Animals. Drug Use Notification Forms must be complete by 7:00 PM, the first day of the fair. All forms must be submitted electronically to ODA. See Jr. Fair Livestock Sale Committee rules and guidelines for specific details.
9. NO Tack Stalls will be allowed until all animals are in place. IF space is available after move in, tack stalls will be assigned upon request to Jr Fair Livestock advisors.

Dairy and Specialty Goat Exhibitor Rules and Guidelines

1. Animal Requirements for Dairy and Specialty Goats: Goats must be in the possession and under ownership of the exhibitor by June 1.
2. No Bucks allowed to show in any of the goat classes.
3. A Breeding Livestock Project Identification Form: Must be completed and on file with the Junior Fair Board by June 11 and must include a copy of the registration papers, a legible tattoo that matches the registration papers and the USDA Official Scrapies tag number.

Market Goat Exhibitor Rules and Guidelines

Market Ready Animals will go through a Terminal Sale.

All Market ready livestock must go through a TERMINAL SALE. Terminal sale means all animals must go to slaughter or directly to a licensed livestock facility for slaughter only. You CANNOT withdraw your animal from the sale and the buyer cannot take the live animal home. Market ready animals are Market Steer / Heifer, Market Swine, Market Lamb, Market Goat, Market Poultry (Broilers, Roasters, Ducks, Geese & Turkey) and Market Rabbits.

Beef Feeders and Dairy Beef Feeders are not market ready animals and will not follow the above guidelines.

1. Animal Requirements for Market Goats:

1. Market goats must be in the possession and under ownership of the exhibitor by May 1.
 2. A Market Livestock Project Identification Form must be completed and on file with the Junior Fair Board by May 11, for all market goats. The official USDA Scrapies tag number must be included on this form.
 3. Doe and wether goats are eligible to show in the market goat classes.
 4. Age: All Market Goats must be born on or after November 15th of the previous calendar year.
1. Official Weigh-In: Market goats shall be weighed once. This is the official weight for the fair. There will be one weigh master at the weigh-in and his/her decision is final. Reference the Jr. Fair Livestock Sale Committee rules and guidelines for additional details.
 2. Weight Limits: Market Goats must weigh between 50-120 pounds. Market Dairy Goats must meet a minimum weight of 50 pounds. Market Goats meet the weight limits set by the Junior Fair Board to be eligible to show and/or sell.
 3. Sale Requirements: All Market Goats will be sold through the Junior Fair Livestock Sale on the last day of the fair. Reference Jr. Fair Livestock Sale Committee rules and regulations for additional information.
 4. Sale Pictures: The Sale committee will take an individual sale picture on show day. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to make sure they get their picture taken that day. Pictures will be used for the buyer's plaque and to be displaced on the overhead screens during the livestock sale.

501: GOAT SHOWMANSHIP

Online registration is PREFERRED for showmanship classes. This will help us determine the number of exhibitors for each class. Day of show registration for showmanship only allowed, must be registered by ½ hour prior to the start of the show.

1. Junior Showmanship
2. Intermediate Showmanship
3. Senior Showmanship
4. Master Showmanship
5. First Year Showmanship

Rules Governing all Showmanship Classes

1. Age Division: There will be four divisions for all livestock showmanship contests.
Age Divisions are as follows:
 - Junior Division (ages 8-11 as of January 1, current year)
 - Intermediate Division (ages 12-14 as of January 1, current year)
 - Senior Division (ages 15-18 as of January 1, current year)
 - First Year Division (any age, First year in the project)
2. Previous Year Showmanship Winners: Winners of awards in showmanship in previous years may not enter in the same class in subsequent years. Those winners must progress to the next available class. (ie. Junior to Intermediate, etc.) A Senior Showmanship winner may participate in the Senior Showmanship Class after a one year absence. Example: 2021 Senior Showmanship winner would be eligible to participate in the 2023 Senior Showmanship Contest if he/she meets Junior Fair age requirements.
3. Number of Entries: An individual may enter only one showmanship class with the same species of livestock with the exception of the current showmanship winner's entry into master showmanship. Pre-fair Online Registration Preferred. Showmanship registrations accepted day of show, entries must be made ½ hr before showmanship classes begin.
4. Ownership of Showmanship Animals: Each contestant must be the owner of the animal shown and must have been personally responsible for fitting and preparation of the animal in the contest with the exception of participants who enter master showmanship who are not current Junior Fair Exhibitors.
5. Showman Dress Code: Exhibitors shall be dressed neat and clean for a professional show look. All exhibitors are required to wear a shirt which is non-revealing when participating in the showing. (Ladies this means when bending over, your chest is not showing). Shirts may be long or short sleeve. NO Sleeveless shirts allowed. Shirts must be tucked in all the way around the waist. No logos or advertisements on shirts other than 4-H Club. Long Pants only, no shorts. Pants must be neat, clean, no rips, holes or tears. Wear closed toe shoes. No sandals. (Boots or tennis shoes recommended) No HATS. Rabbit and Poultry exhibitor must wear a white lab coat or white oxford type shirt.
6. Animal Fitting Judging Criteria: Fitting will count 50% and will include: A) Soundness, condition, quality and in market animals, firmness and uniformity of covering, B) Cleanliness - hide, hair and hoofs must be clean, neat and free of dirt, C) General appearance must be attractive from the standpoint of prevailing breed fashion.
7. Showmanship Judging Criteria: Showmanship will count 50% and will include A) Appearance of exhibitor and equipment used to show animal, B) Ability to properly pose animals, C) Exhibitor must demonstrate ability to move animal around the ring as directed by the judge.
8. Master Showmanship: There will be a Master Showmanship Contest for Beef, Dairy, Swine, Sheep, Poultry, Rabbits, Goats, Llamas and Horse. Only those persons who have been showmanship winners (First Year, Junior, Intermediate and Senior) in previous years (this year included) may compete in their appropriate Master Showmanship Contest. The Master Showmanship Contest will be held immediately following the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Classes. Current Junior Fair Exhibitors must be the owner or eligible show-person of the animal. Former Junior Fair Exhibitors who wish to participate in the Master Showmanship Class, but are not current Junior Fair exhibitors, must gain permission from the owner to use a current Junior Fair animal for the contest.
9. Showman of Showman Contest: The winner of the Senior Showmanship Class for beef, dairy, goat, horses, sheep, poultry, rabbits, swine and dog are eligible to compete in this contest. Once the showmanship winner or alternate has been declared to represent one species in the Showman of Showmen, there can be no changes in representation. If the Senior Showmanship winner chooses not to participate, the eligibility goes to the 2nd place exhibitor and continues through 5th place.

601: GOAT PREMIER EXHIBITOR

No additional online registration required for this Premier Exhibitor contest. You are automatically enrolled by participating in the five (5) events required for this contest.

1. Junior Premier Exhibitor
2. Intermediate Premier Exhibitor
3. Senior Premier Exhibitor

1. Age Division: There will be three age divisions for all Premier Exhibitor awards.
Junior (ages 8-11 as of January 1, current year)
Intermediate (ages 12-14 as of January 1, current year)
Senior (ages 15-18 as of January 1, current year)
2. Contest Sections: Award is based on active participation in five sections: Evaluation, Showmanship, Live Animal Score, Thank you or Species Promotion Contest and Skill-a-Thon.
3. Possible Points: The maximum points an exhibitor can accumulate in each specie area is as follows:
 - A. Evaluation - 100 points
 - B. Showmanship - 100 points
 - C. Live Animal Show - 100 points
 - D. Thank you or Specie Promotion Poster – 25 points
 - E. Skill-a-Thon - 100 points
 - F. Total Points: 425
4. Tie Breakers: The exhibitor with the highest combined score for all five sections of the Premier Exhibitor Award will be recognized as the winner in each species and age division. In case of a tie, the following tie breakers will be used:
 - A. Exhibitor with the highest Evaluation Score
 - B. Exhibitor with the Highest Skill-a-Thon Score
 - C. Exhibitor with the highest placing in showmanship
 - D. Exhibitor with the highest composite live animal score
 - E. Interview with Showman of Showmen Judge.
6. Award Announcements: Winners will be announced on Friday of the fair.

Guidelines for Each Section

1. Evaluation: Actual score from the evaluation section will be used. This section includes interview, project & record book. See each specie department for evaluation times and location. In beef and poultry, where an exhibitor may be taking more than one market project, the scores will be averaged to determine a composite score for all market projects for that species.
2. Showmanship: Each exhibitor receives points based on the following formula:
1st - 100 pts.
2nd - 95 pts.
3rd - 90 pts.
4th - 85 pts.
5th - 80 pts.
Participation-75 pts.

3. Live Animal Show: Each exhibitor will receive points based on the formula below for each market class he or she shows in:
 - 1st - 100 pts.
 - 2nd - 95 pts.
 - 3rd - 90 pts.
 - 4th - 85 pts.
 - 5th - 80 pts.
 - Participation-75 pts.
 If an exhibitor shows in more than one market class the highest placing score will be used.
4. Skill-a-Thon: Actual score from the Skill-a-Thon section will be used.
5. Thank you or Specie Promotion: Each exhibitor who meets the poster contests criteria will earn 25 points for submitting an entry in Contest. The 25 points is given based on an entry per species. Example: If you were showing market poultry and market swine you would need to submit a poster for each entry to earn 25 points in each Premier Exhibitor Area.
